NORWICH TOWN

Attractive Decorations at Closing Exercises of School—Award of Prizes—Children's Party for Virginia—Guests—Ton of Waste Paper Secured.

Many parents and friends were present Thursday afternoon at the West Town street school for the graduating exercises. The senior room was beautiful with flowers and flags, across the front was a bank of laurel, daisies and branches of tulip tree. White and pale pink pennons were massed on a table. About the room were pan-pans, roses, syringas and snowballs. For the first time there were printed programs. Mrs. E. G. Danby accompanied for the songs, and the exercises were most successfully carried out.

Prizes Awarded.
In the intermediate room prizes were given for spelling and for the largest number of wild flowers brought in grade 4 for spelling, Kathleen Ryan and Elizabeth Mara; grade 4, spelling, Mary Bann and Elizabeth Avery. For wild flowers, Charlotte Fellows, 106; and Elizabeth Avery.

Children's Party.

A pretty children's party for Lewis and Mary Hyde who are visiting here from Winchester, Va., was given at the home of Mrs. C. J. Abell on East Town street Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Abell and her cousin, Miss Jessie E. Hyde. Merry games were played and then the children took their places at the table where were favors of baskets of candy and toy balloons, and for a centerpiece a miniature fishpond. Cake, wafers and ice cream were enjoyed. The little guests were Ethel, Jessie and Luther Whaley, Myrilla and Dorothy Perkins, Dorothy Heath, Mary and Lewis Hyde.

JURY BRINGS IN $500 VERDICT

Makes Award in Rowe vs Burrows in Superior Court Thursday Afternoon at 4:25 O'Clock—Plaintiff Asked $5,000 Damages as Result of Automobile Accident—Another Case Started.

At 4:25 o'clock Thursday afternoon the jury in the case of Thomas Rowe vs. Raymond S. Burrows of New London brought in a verdict of $500 in favor of the plaintiff. The case grew out of an automobile collision in New London last fall and the plaintiff asked damages of $5,000.

The final arguments were made when the Superior court came in on Thursday morning, the case having been continued from Wednesday afternoon when two arguments were made. The jury was charged by Judge Tool at 10 o'clock and took the case at 11:30. At 3:10 o'clock the jury came in and Foreman E. M. Baker said the jury wanted to be instructed as to whether they should consider the allegation as a whole or separately. Judge Reed said they should consider them both ways in determining the case. Mr. Baker also inquired as to the rate of speed allowed and was told that all that could be said as to that was what the statutes say and that in that the rate must be reasonable, all things considered. The jury then went back to consider the case and returned with their verdict at 4:25 o'clock.

The plaintiff in the case was not able to be in court as it is claimed that he is confined to his home since the accident. His lawyers did not present a deposition.

WALTER CROSS GOES BACK TO MERIDEN

New London Youth Escaped From Institution—Admits Burglaries.

Walter Cross, the 17-year-old New London boy who escaped from the state at Meriden on June 17, was arrested Wednesday night by Officer Brown and will be sent back to Meriden. Cross, at police headquarters on Wednesday night, admitted to Officer Hammond that he was engaged in a "broke" racket in the kitchen in Broad street Tuesday night.

After being arrested on Oct. 5, 1911, for breaking into several stores and the residence of E. D. Steele in Ocean avenue, Cross was sent to the school at Meriden, where he remained until June 11, when he escaped in company with Dominic Modjeski.

Wednesday afternoon Cross was seen in the vicinity of the railroad bridge in Montauk avenue and the police were notified. Officer Courtland Brown went to the scene and after a lively chase, captured the youth and took him to headquarters, where Cross told his story.

Cross and the Italian, according to the arrested boy's story, made their escape from the institution by slipping down a rope made of sheets, to the ground from the second story. The Italian fell and was somewhat injured, Cross leaving his companion in New Haven. Cross came to New London and has been knocking around from place to place, sleeping Tuesday night in a shed in Mountain avenue.

Officer Charles Hammond was working on the Peterson burglary case and he suspected Cross of being mixed in it. On questioning the boy the officer secured a confession, Cross declaring he was alone in the burglary which occurred early Wednesday morning.

Cross was in police court Thursday morning but was not presented, Prosecuting Attorney Daniel M. Cronin recommending that he be sent back to Meriden, and the court so ordered.

While court was in session the school authorities got into communication with police headquarters and requested that the boy be sent back to Meriden, and the court so ordered.

A box of epsons, the only booty secured in the Peterson raid, was found on Cross and these were returned to the owner.

Tag Day for Connecticut College: Miss Ruth Trail of Groton, who was during last month elected as class president of the first sophomore class of Connecticut College for Women, has selected a committee of students of the college to work with her in the Tag Day campaign.

Another Side of It.
When you reflect that putting the clock ahead for more daylight means going to bed in the warm hours of the evening and getting up when it is coolest to sleep, it does not seem so attractive.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

BOAT RACE CROWD BEGINS TO ARRIVE

Big Fleet of Yachts Anchored in New London Harbor.

New London Thursday afternoon wore the holiday aspect which it has on the eve of Race day. Vendors of balloons, pennants and other novelties of the regatta had begun to take their places along the curbing and store windows were gay with blue and white. The regatta display was a big fleet of yachts with colors flying is anchored along the harbor and the afternoon of a brilliant illumination last evening was promising.

Early arrivals found great difficulty in securing observation train tickets for the regatta. Many who came by train and motor car during the day expected to purchase car reservations but discovered that tickets were not available at any of the usual sources of supply. Even the speculators appeared on the streets empty handed and offered double and treble the face value of the pastebords without effecting a deal.

In other respects preliminary indications pointed to one of the best regattas in recent years. An unusually large number of spectators appeared assured and while the weather is cool and windy race officials stated that they expected to start promptly as scheduled. There was considerable activity at the crew quarters of the two squads and a number of alumni made the pilgrimage up river to spend the day with the oarsmen and witness the rowing of the scrub races late this afternoon.

A change in the schedule for Friday has been made, by which the morning races will be rowed at 9:30, and 10 downstream and the afternoon ones at 5:45. On this account a revision of race schedules was announced by the New Haven road.

GAVE HORSES FOR MILITIA CAMP

Mounts Provided for Troop B by Morgan G. Bulkeley.

Adjutant General George M. Cole announced Wednesday that some of the companies of the First Connecticut Cavalry, which are in the mobilization camp at Niantic by Friday or Saturday, Morgan G. Bulkeley, one time between 40 and 50 horses for Troop B, and these will enable the troops to go to camp with a full enlistment of 100 mounted men.

Mr. Bulkeley's son is a lieutenant in the troop.

Kelso Davis had announced to Adjutant General Cole that the troop was ready to march to camp with 38 mounted men, and the adjutant general issued a special order for the march. When it was learned that through the generosity of Senator Bulkeley, the horses would be procured General Cole decided to postpone the enforcement of the order until this morning. Houston Bulkeley, another son of Mr. Bulkeley, has been transferred from a Yale battery to Troop B.

NEW LONDON CHINAMAN HAS BEEN RELEASED.

New York Authorities Did Not Think Evidence Sufficient to Hold Him.

Leo Tong, the New London Chinaman who was arrested in New York on the charge of white slavery, has been released. The New York authorities did not think the evidence sufficient to hold Tong and he was allowed to go.

Tong was arrested when he alighted from a New York express in the Grand Central station about two weeks ago. The New York police had been notified and were waiting when the train arrived there.

Tong's companion, Miss Julia Carson, of Norwich, was also arrested. After an investigation the police authorities then released both.

Both the Colonel and Mr. Barnes have gone into political retirement. They will have time now to retry their lawsuit.—Utica Observer.
